4. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

Together with Christine M. Cervenak, another lawyer who has registered under the Act, I am to research, analyze and advise my client on U.S. and international legal issues related to the conclusion of an extradition treaty with the United States. The work product is to be a report to be delivered on or about March 8, 1993. Ongoing and subsequent consultations and advice regarding the subject matter of the report may take place.

An attorney-client relationship exists. The agreement was formed on February 15, when Ing. Bohrt's letter was received. Preliminary advice was given on February 26.

5. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

These activities involve the research, analysis, and provision of advice on U.S. and international law issues related to conclusion of an extradition treaty between Bolivia and the United States.

6. Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act?¹
Yes ☐ No ☒

If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

Hon. Ambassador Jorge Crespo Velasco
Embassy of Bolivia
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Pursuant to a conversation with Minister Fernando González this afternoon, we would like to indicate our interest in providing legal advice to your government in connection with its efforts to negotiate an extradition treaty.

We are prepared to discuss the specific terms of reference and other details regarding our work with Minister González .

We look forward to working with the Government of Bolivia in this matter.

Sincerely,

James P. Rowles Christine M. Cervenak

Hon. Ing. Humberto Bohrt
Vice Minister of Foreign Relations
Ministry of Foreign Relations
La Paz, Bolivia

Dear Minister Bohrt:

Following your suggestion in our telephone conversation of today, I would like to propose the following arrangements and fees for providing legal advice during the first stage of the negotiations relating to the treaty in question.

Ms. Christine Cervenak and I shall review the draft of the treaty which the group under your supervision is preparing, and shall provide a report in English containing written commentary and suggestions for your consideration. It is anticipated that your group will have finished its draft by the end of next week, and that we would have received a copy on or about Monday, February 15. Thereafter, we would expect to send our report to you sometime during the week of February 22 and in any event by Friday, February 26. At that point we would be available for a telephone conference call to discuss the report.

Either as an alternative or in addition to the conference call, if you prefer, one or both of us might travel to Washington or La Paz to discuss with you our report and the negotiations relating to the treaty. Compensation for such travel would be as mutually agreed, and in addition to that proposed here. Also, after presentation of the draft text to the other government, we would be available to assist you further in the second stage of the negotiations, in accordance with such terms as might be mutually agreed.

With respect to the honoraria or fee arrangements, I propose that Ms. Cervenak and I each work five eight-hour days, billed at the rate of $75 per hour for Ms. Cervenak (40 x $75 = $3,000) and $150 per hour for myself (40 x $150 = $6,000). The total cost for our work would be $9,000, plus actual expenses for telephone, courier, etc.

In short we undertake to do the work for $9,000 plus incidental expenses. We would bill you for no more than eight hours a day or a total of 40 hours each, even if we have to work additional hours to complete the report. If we work fewer than 40 hours each, we will bill you only for the hours worked.

Hon. Ing. Humberto Bohrt

Also, if you need a Spanish translation of our report, I could arrange for one to be prepared (at an additional cost of U.S.$0.12 per word), and would personally review the translation.

If this arrangement is satisfactory to you, once we have your agreement we shall immediately begin preliminary work so as to be in a position, after receiving your draft, to complete our report by the week of February 22. Should you wish to discuss these arrangements further, we would be happy to do so.

We look forward to working with you and your team on this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rowles:

First, I would like to apologize for the delay in responding to your fax dated February 3. We have had a lot of work during this time and it was impossible for me to respond sooner.

As expressed in our telephone conversation, we agree on the terms of your proposal. We will decide later on whether to travel to Washington or for you to travel to La Paz.

We have already sent, via courier, all the documents regarding the extradition Treaty draft including all the literature you have requested.

We hope to conclude this Treaty in the shortest possible time, since the U.S. Government is very interested to signing it as soon as possible.

Please, confirm receipt of the documents, upon reception.

Sincerely
